

AGGLANT SOLDIER NAMED.

GEN. EDWARD F. JONES NOMINATED FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

The Democratic State Committee finished the voting to-day. The nomination of Gen. Edward F. Jones for lieutenant-governor was made by a vote of 100 to 9. The committee met at the Hotel Hamilton, where the members were gathered. The committee was organized at 10 o'clock. The members were: Messrs. Jones, Smith, and others. The committee was organized at 10 o'clock. The members were: Messrs. Jones, Smith, and others. The committee was organized at 10 o'clock. The members were: Messrs. Jones, Smith, and others.

THE ROUMANIAN REBELLION.

Anxiety of the Great Powers to Prevent the Spreading of the Trouble.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Serbian Government has sent despatches to the powers demanding to be represented at the approaching diplomatic conference at Constantinople upon the Bulgarian question. It is regarded as certain that similar demands will be made by Roumania and Greece, but the conduct of the powers is now to be seen. The existing trouble, and above all to prevent its extension to the western principalities of the Balkan peninsula. If the grievances and aspirations of all the Balkan States are to be discussed, the whole work of the Berlin Congress will be reopened and the Berlin treaty might as well be a waste paper. Moreover, the diplomatic conference will have no plenary powers, and those Balkan States which are not immediately interested in the present question can be left to be heard through the ordinary channels of diplomacy.

A PENKNEIGH BLADE KILLED HIM.

The Wound Tom Foley Severely Felt at First, but He Died in Five Minutes.

Two very merry young fellows walked unsteadily down West Sixty-sixth street from the North River yesterday afternoon. One was short and grimy looking, and the other tall, lank-jointed, and pale. The short one was Tom Foley, a coal shoveller, aged 20, of 408 West Sixteenth street, and the tall one was Jim Carlin, aged 21, of 401 West Seventeenth street, and known as "Sun Dodger" Carlin because he doesn't like to work. The two had had some merrymaking for Foley by Carlin. They stopped at the southeast corner of Sixteenth street and Tenth avenue. In front of John Ryan's saloon, where they were joined by John Egan, a fellow shoveller.

CHICAGO HAS FIRST BLOOD.

THE NEW YORK CLUB DEFEATED BY A SCORE OF SEVEN TO FOUR.

Twelve Thousand People Witnessed the Most Exciting Base Ball Game of the Season—The Great Crowd Wild with Enthusiasm.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—People swarmed around the base ball park to-day like flies around a basin of syrup. They choked Loomis street from the corner of Adams street to the corner of Lincoln street, and the streets leading to the park were filled with people. The crowd was wild with enthusiasm. The game was played at the Chicago Club Grounds. The Chicago Club defeated the New York Club by a score of seven to four. The game was played at the Chicago Club Grounds. The Chicago Club defeated the New York Club by a score of seven to four.

HIS COMPLIMENTS TO GEN. SHERMAN.

Editor McCullough Fired by a Remark of the Gratiot Veteran.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—A discussion that ought to prove whether or not the pen is mightier than the sword is exciting the people of this city. Editor J. B. McCullough of the Globe-Democrat and Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman are exchanging left-handed compliments. Gen. Sherman, in an interview published in the Globe-Democrat, has said that he would not have been a soldier if he had not been a writer. Editor McCullough, in a letter to the Globe-Democrat, has said that he would not have been a writer if he had not been a soldier.

TROOPS GUARD MONTREAL.

Excitement in the City, But No Further Violence.

The Conduct of the Police Commanded—The Mayor's First Order in the Case of the Riots.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—Montreal has been in a state of tumult all day. Such scenes as those that disgraced the city last evening have rarely been witnessed. For over four hours the eastern portion of the city, inhabited for the most part by the French population, was the headquarters of the mob. The riot and disorder reigned supreme, and the authorities were set at utter defiance. The citizens to-day, on all sides, gave vent to their indignation, not so much at the conduct of the mob as the disgraceful manner in which the police force acted. The streets were thronged with thousands of rioters, and all the police did was to arrest two men. Montreal is a fine orderly town. The worst enemies are in its own governing body. In fact, three French Canadian Aldermen are openly charged to-day with being the ringleaders of last night's disturbances. One of them is the Chairman of the Police Committee, and instead of being at his post of duty last evening, he was at the theatre. His conduct is condemned in the strongest terms to-day.

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.

Ita Davenport and Joseph B. Carr, Republican candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor, were the only ones not inclined.

At noon yesterday the Democratic State Committee met together again to hear the report of the committee that had been sent to Gen. Stoughton to take the place made vacant by the death of Mr. Flower. They knew when they set down together in the Hoffman House that there was little likelihood that the committee would succeed. It had been sent to Gen. Stoughton, and said in Saratoga that he would take no other place. The committee had brought back uncertain and unsatisfactory reports, but in the mean time Mr. Hugh McLaughlin of Brooklyn, who had called upon the Governor, had extended to him all the assurances that the leader of the Kings county Democracy was able to offer. It was with pleasure that the friends of Gen. Hill, who were especially anxious to have Gen. Stoughton on the ticket, heard of Mr. McLaughlin's offer and witnessed his departure. It was with pleasure that Gen. Stoughton could be the nominee. The committee adjourned until evening.

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."

THE BROTHERS HAVE AN EVENING.

Reporters who were Looking up a Church Squabble Catch It in a Prayer Meeting.

The troubles of the Abyssinian Baptist Church (colored) in the State courts and the police court have occupied the reporters recently, and last night the brethren had their own way. They invited the three reporters who had been in the court to come to the prayer meeting. One of them said, rather indignantly, that he didn't see the good of it, but he was persuaded to go in. A brother in the front row knelt down and prayed: "Come down, O Lord, on these miserable sinners. Make their hearts hot for their sins. Teach them to love you, O Lord, and to love each other. There is a heaven to seek and a hell to shun."